1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Instruction:

- 1.1. Reissues reference (a) as a DoD Instruction according to the guidance in reference (b) and updates policy on the security of DoD installations and resources.
- 1.2. Authorizes commanders to issue regulations for the protection or security of property or places under their command, according to reference (c).
- 1.3. Continues to authorize the publication of reference (d) according to reference (~~eb~~), to establish consistent minimum standards for protecting DoD installations and resources.
- 1.4. Establishes the DoD PSRB (formerly known as the Arms, Ammunition, and Explosives PSRB).*

2. APPLICABILITY

Change 1, 05/19/2010

This Instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities in the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as the “DoD Components”). The term “commanders,” as used in this Instruction, refers to personnel assigned to command positions at all levels and the heads of the Defense Agencies and DoD Field Activities.

3. POLICY

It is DoD policy that:

3.1. DoD installations, property, and personnel shall be protected and that applicable laws and regulations shall be enforced.

3.2. The authority of a DoD commander to take reasonably necessary and lawful measures to maintain law and order and to protect installation personnel and property:

3.2.1. Extends to temporarily established “National Defense Areas” under emergency situations such as accident sites involving Federal equipment or personnel on official business.

3.2.2. Includes the removal from, or the denial of access to, an installation or site of individuals who threaten the orderly administration of the installation or site.

3.2.3. Shall not be exercised in an arbitrary, unpredictable, or discriminatory manner. Removal or denial actions must be based on reasonable grounds and be judiciously applied.

3.2.4. Exists in prohibiting individuals from reentering an installation after they have been removed and ordered not to reenter under section 1382 of title 18, United States Code (reference (~~fe~~)). If this order is violated, the commander of a DoD installation may detain individuals not subject to military law until the civil authorities may respond. Offenders may be appropriately prosecuted in accordance with the law.

3.3. Commanders at all levels have the responsibility and authority to enforce appropriate security measures to ensure the protection of DoD property and personnel assigned, attached, or subject to their control.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1. The Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence (USD(I)) shall:

4.1.1 ~~d~~Develop overall security policy including requirements for the DoD Physical Security Program.

4.1.2 Form, administer, and manage the DoD PSRB. Board membership and responsibilities are established in Enclosure 2.

4.2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Heads of other DoD Components shall:

4.2.1 Establish policies and procedures to implement this Instruction, consistent with the policies and guidelines contained in enclosure 1.

4.2.2 Support the DoD PSRB by providing the Board with information and assistance necessary for its assigned functions and by providing qualified personnel for task groups when requested by the Chair of the DoD PSRB.

5. RELEASABILITY. UNLIMITED. This Instruction is approved for public release and is available on the Internet from the DoD Issuances Website at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives>.

56. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Instruction is effective immediately.

Stephen A. Cambone
Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence
