Case background: On the afternoon of 9/16/2001, agents from the ORA contacted him at his residence. He gave consent for the search of his home and documents were obtained showing:

had several newspapers clippings, e-mail printouts, letters and notes which showed he is an active member of the Muslim American Society (MAS), a group dedicated to promoting a positive public image of Muslims in the United States. He is also a member of the Media Watch Board of the MAS, which is dedicated to monitoring the American media for perceived anti-Arab prejudice. Some of the MAS literature emphasized that Muslims should remain mute or indifferent to the terrorist attacks of 9/11/2001, but should be vocal in their condemning of the violence. He also recently became a volunteer in the Florida Department of Corrections for incarcerated Muslim prisoners.

After the consent search of his home, voluntarily came to the ORA where he was interviewed for over six hours. Present during the interview and acting as counsel was who is an attorney.

provided the following information concerning his background and his relationship and knowledge of AL-AMIR befriended AL-AMIR.

AL-AMIR knows AL-AMIR by his true name and prior to approximately 9/14/2001, had never heard the name MUHAMMED ATTA.

* After graduation, AL-AMIR enrolled in an intensive German language program at a well-known school in Cairo named Gotta. AL-AMIR told that he needed to become fluent in German to be eligible to attend a graduate level civil engineering school in Germany. It was common knowledge among the engineering graduates from Cairo University that the best graduate engineering programs were in the United States or Germany. The American schools were known as selective and expensive and the German schools offered free tuition to any applicant who was fluent in German.

* In their senior year at Cairo University and for the next several years, AL-AMIR and their friends frequented a sports club in Cairo named Nadi Said, where they played soccer and basketball and swam. The club was co-ed; therefore, no fundamentalist Muslims came to the club.

* Between 1990 and 1998, AL-AMIR never expressed any extremist or fundamentalist beliefs, nor did he ever express any hostility to the United States or any other western country.

* Between 1990 and 1998, AL-AMIR engaged in social activities such as attending movie theaters, which further indicated that AL-AMIR was not then a Muslim fundamentalist.

* AL-AMIR never talked about aviation or wanting to become a pilot.

* AL-AMIR was never in the military, nor did he ever have any technical training which would be helpful to carrying out any of the terrorist attacks of 9/11/2001.

* AL-AMIR was in Cairo until May 1996, when he traveled to the United States and lived in Long Island and applied for civil engineering jobs. He found that he could not get satisfactory employment in the United States without a graduate degree.

* When first arrived in New York in May 1996, he lived for about two weeks with a distant cousin whom he had never met or spoken with before coming to New York. Then moved into an apartment with...
In November 1996, returned to Cairo and applied for enrollment at the University of California at Los Angeles, University of California at Berkeley, Arizona State University, the University of Florida and UCF. applied to UCF because one of his professors at Cairo University, had a brother, who was a professor at UCF and offered to provide a good reference to get admitted to UCF. Because of his test scores, was accepted only at Arizona State University and UCF. accepted the UCF offer and in August 1997, he enrolled as a first year graduate student in the Civil Engineering Department at UCF.

* does not know whether AL-AMIR was close to any of his professors at Cairo University or whether he maintained contact with any of the faculty at Cairo University.

* In approximately 1996, AL-AMIR told that as part of his education in Germany, he had gone to Hallab, Syria to study ancient architecture.

* When returned to Cairo in November 1996, AL-AMIR was staying with his parents and was actively "trying to get married." AL-AMIR told he was returning to Cairo from Hamburg, Germany as often as he could in his effort to marry a suitable Egyptian woman. AL-AMIR was then a full-time student at an unknown university and working part-time as an architectural engineer for an unknown employer. AL-AMIR, like most young Egyptian males his age, was preoccupied with finding a suitable Egyptian wife.

* initially said he never had any contact of any kind with AL-AMIR since Orlando, Florida in June 1997. also initially denied having telephone, personal, indirect or e-mail contact with AL-AMIR since 1997 or perhaps as recently as 1998.

* believes the last telephonic contact he had with AL-AMIR was a telephone call in 1997 or 1998 in which called AL-AMIR at his apartment in Hamburg, Germany. The telephone directory on his home computer showed the telephone number for AL-AMIR. He then had an e-mail address which was provided to AL-AMIR by the school he was attending in Hamburg. Last sent an e-mail to AL-AMIR in approximately 1998 and the e-mail bounced.

* AL-AMIR then had at least one roommate at his apartment. At least twice, the roommate answered the phone when called for AL-AMIR. Does not know anything about the roommate except that based upon the roommate’s manner of speaking Arabic, does not believe the roommate was Egyptian. Never talked with AL-AMIR about his roommates, he never met any of the roommates, nor did he ever hear any names of roommates.

* The last phone call in 1997 or 1998 consisted of conversation about their respective efforts to meet and marry a suitable Egyptian female. AL-AMIR expressed his unhappiness about the fact he was unable to carry out the required courtship which took at least two weeks. AL-AMIR had only a few days at a time to return to Cairo from Hamburg because of his schooling and employment.

* In May 2000, met his future wife via the Internet and they got engaged in June 2000 and set their wedding date for December 30, 2000.

* When they met, wife was a fourth year medical student at the University of Florida in Gainesville. She graduated in June 2000 and is now a resident in the family practice department at Florida Hospital, Orlando’s largest hospital. Wife works shifts of 24 hours and is therefore away from home for extended periods of time.

* In July 2000, called the phone numbers he had for AL-AMIR to invite him to his wedding. When spoke with AL-AMIR’s father, the father told him he did not know where his son was and told not to call again.

* Then called AL-AMIR and told him nobody in their family knew where AL-AMIR was, but he did occasionally call the family. When again asked where AL-AMIR was, AL-AMIR was in Syria. For a telephone number for AL-AMIR so he could call AL-AMIR himself. Said she would give AL-AMIR his number and tell AL-AMIR that wanted to speak with him.

* During the interview on 9/16-17/2001, was insistent he has not attempted to call or e-mail AL-AMIR since July 2000 and has not had contact with him since December 1998.
At the time of the interview, [_____] had in his wallet a piece of folded paper about 5" X 5" which he said he created using Excel Spreadsheet software. The paper was a list of names and telephone numbers. [_____] created the list approximately four months ago when he obtained a telephone calling card account number for calling long distance for about $.05 per minute.

* The list has a total of nine names and associated telephone numbers. [_____] went over the list in detail and identified what his relationship is with the individuals and what his most recent contact with each person was. The people whose names are on the list are friends or relatives [_____] or his wife. One name had no phone numbers in the columns beside the name.

* [_____] has had contact with eight of the nine people on the list at least since January 2001. [_____] has spoken by phone with six of eight of the persons on the list at least once a month for the past several years. AL-AMIR is the only person on the list with whom [_____] has not had contact since January 2001. [_____] denied having contact with him since December 1998.

* [_____] was questioned about the inconsistency in his account of his having the list of phone numbers in his wallet yet denying contact with AL-AMIR since 1998. He remained adamant he has not had any contact with AL-AMIR since 1998.

* One of the names on the list is [_____] whom [_____] identified as another classmate from engineering school at Cairo University.

* [_____] knew AL-AMIR from Cairo university and knew [_____] was friends with AL-AMIR. After the attacks on 9/11/2001, [_____] They discussed the attacks and the fact AL-AMIR’s photograph was being shown on the Internet and television as one of the suicide pilots.

* [_____] does not believe AL-AMIR [_____] were friends or that they ever talked by phone other than the one three way call.

* [_____] claimed that when he saw AL-AMIR’s photograph on the Internet and television, he did not believe the person was AL-AMIR for the following reasons:

1. The pilot was identified as MUHAMMED ATTA, not MUHAMMED AMIR.

2. The pilot was described as being born in the United Arab Emirates. [_____] knew AL-AMIR was born in Cairo.
3. The pilot was described as having a degree in electrical engineering. AL-AMIR had a degree in architectural engineering.

4. The person whose picture was on the Internet and television was described as having attended flight schools in Florida. ______________ knew that if AL-AMIR had come to Florida, he would have contacted EL- and he did not.

5. ______________ believed the photograph looked like AL-AMIR, but he was not positive it was him.

* On approximately 9/14/2001, ______________ was called at home by ___________________ who also graduated from the engineering department of Cairo University in 1990. ______________ asked ___________________ if he had seen the photograph of the suicide pilots and ______________ replied affirmatively. They then briefly discussed whether one of the photographs looked like AL-AMIR. ______________ told ______________ none of the photographs was AL-AMIR and that AL-AMIR’s name was not ATTA. ______________ does not have a phone number or other contact information for ______________.

* The two numbers on the list for "MOHAMMED AMEER" are:

1. ______________ (listed in Cairo EC dated 9/13/2001 as the home telephone number of AL-AMIR’s father) The number was in a column headed "Home."

2. ______________ The number is in a column headed "CELL PHONE."

* ______________ was last in New York City in January 2001 when he and his wife flew to Cairo via Kennedy Airport for their honeymoon. ______________ has been in Washington, D.C. only once and that was in the winter of 1998 as part of his studies in at UCF.

* ______________ was returned to his home by ORA agents on the early morning of 9/17/2001. ______________ consented to a search of his vehicle. The ORA SA told ______________ agents would contact him later on 9/17/2001 for a follow up interview. ______________ said he was planning to go to work in a few hours. The apartment and ______________’s car were kept under surveillance. Approximately an hour after he was left at the apartment, ______________ walked from his apartment and threw a garbage bag into a trash dumpster a short distance from his apartment. The bag was subsequently retrieved and it contained food stuffs, newspapers and documents which appeared to be notes ______________’ wife had written about patients at her hospital. There were no documents in the bag which had not been examined during the earlier consent search.

* Later on the morning of 9/17/2001, ______________ left his apartment and drove to work, where he remained except for an out-of-office meeting with co-workers. Twice during the day, he called the ORA agent who had interviewed him on 9/16-17/2001 to when somebody would contact him to complete the interview.

On the evening of 9/17/2001, FBI TP and FBI NY agreed that he should be polygraphed. Since had been up all night and then worked all day, it was decided to polygraph him on the morning of 9/18/2001. On 9/17/2001, NY SAs flew to Orlando to participate in interviews related to his apartment and car were kept under surveillance until he was picked up at the apartment at approximately 9:30 A.M., 9/18/2001 and transported to the ORA. His wife and sister-in-law drove to the ORA in a separate vehicle.

On the morning and early afternoon of 9/18/2001, he was interviewed at the ORA in the presence of his sister-in-law by an ORA SA and NY SA. Another ORA SA and NY SA interviewed his wife. The statements by are consistent except for the fact she thought he had worked as a civil engineer in Lebanon after graduation from Cairo University and that had met AL-AMIR in New York once when was living in Queens in 1996. has denied knowing anything about the terrorist attacks of 9/11/2001. said she believed it would be her moral and religious obligation to tell the FBI if he had admitted any such knowledge. denied knowing who AL-AMIR was until 9/11/2001 and said her husband initially did not believe the person whose picture was on the Internet and television was the person he knew from college. said she has never met or talked with AL-AMIR.

During the interview on the morning of 9/18/2001, was questioned in great detail about the chronology of his most recent contacts with AL-AMIR. provided the following details which differ from his statement on 9/16-17/2001:

* Initially said the last personal contact had with AL-AMIR was in December 2000, when returned to Cairo during Christmas vacation from UCF. During the interview by the polygrapher, revised the date to May 1999, when UCF was on summer break. It was the subjective opinion of the SAs who interviewed that he appeared to have difficulty reconstructing his activities during the past several years.

* After moved to Orlando and was attending UCF, he attempted to reach AL-AMIR by telephone in Germany and was told by a female who answered the phone that AL-AMIR no longer lived at the number. The female appeared to know who AL-AMIR was. estimated that call was before between January and May.
In 1999, [Redacted] sent an e-mail to AL-AMIR at his school e-mail address and it bounced.

* After that call, [Redacted] attempted to reach AL-AMIR through AL-AMIR's father. [Redacted] estimated he called AL-AMIR's home in Cairo three times between May 1999 and July 2000. Each time, AL-AMIR's father told [Redacted] he did not know where AL-AMIR was or how to reach him. The fourth call was in July 2000, when [Redacted] called to invite AL-AMIR to his wedding. AL-AMIR's father answered and immediately began to yell at [Redacted] not to call any more. AL-AMIR's father said that AL-AMIR was also in Florida. When [Redacted] asked where in Florida AL-AMIR was, AL-AMIR's father got angry with [Redacted] and hung up.

* After the July 2000 call, [Redacted] had his fiance call AL-AMIR's father to get AL-AMIR's phone number. [Redacted] then called [Redacted] identified himself and asked for AL-AMIR's number. [Redacted] told him she did not have a number and that AL-AMIR was in Syria. [Redacted] described [Redacted] statement as an unequivocal statement that AL-AMIR was in Syria rather than a statement that she thought he was there. [Redacted] said AL-AMIR "sometimes calls us" and promised to give him [Redacted] number when he did call.

* [Redacted] then searched the Internet for AL-AMIR's phone number in Florida. He located about one hundred possible numbers for AL-AMIR, using variations on the spelling of the name and he began calling the numbers. After about five calls, [Redacted] gave up, realizing he could call all of the numbers and still not reach AL-AMIR.

* [Redacted] discussed the calls had with AL-AMIR's father and unsuccessful attempts to locate AL-AMIR via the Internet. [Redacted] advised [Redacted] to stop trying to find AL-AMIR, stating that if AL-AMIR wanted to talk to [Redacted] he would have called him.

* [Redacted] was adamant that he did not speak by phone with AL-AMIR since late 1998 and that he did not speak to AL-AMIR in person after [Redacted] got engaged in June 2000.

* The last time [Redacted] spoke by phone with AL-AMIR was in late 1998 when [Redacted] called AL-AMIR in Germany at [Redacted]. In that call, [Redacted] connected a three way call with their mutual friend, [Redacted] who was then living in Saskatchewan, Canada and working as a civil engineer. The call was almost entirely related to their respective efforts to meet and marry a suitable Egyptian woman.

* It was in the 1998 call that AL-AMIR first displayed any conservative or fundamentalists beliefs. During the call, AL-AMIR told the other two they should "be strong and not give in" to women by having pre-marital sex. AL-AMIR also advised to pray daily. Those admonishments were the first time AL-AMIR had ever talked about such beliefs, suggesting that AL-AMIR had recently become significantly more religious.

* In May 1998, when saw AL-AMIR in Cairo, AL-AMIR was staying with his parents and was planning to return to Hamburg. When was in Cairo in May 1998, he saw AL-AMIR once or twice. AL-AMIR then had a beard and closely cropped hair. said such an appearance would immediately draw attention to AL-AMIR as a fundamentalist Muslim and could possibly cause the police to detain, question and possibly arrest AL-AMIR.

* In opinion, the appearance would also make it very difficult for AL-AMIR to find a wife because of the reluctance of most Egyptian females to accept the subservient role a female would have in a marriage with a Muslim fundamentalist.

* AL-AMIR told that both his parents disapproved of his wearing the beard.

* In May 1998, AL-AMIR would no longer meet at night and he spoke negatively of the sports club which they had previously frequented.

* By May 1998, AL-AMIR had obviously adopted a fundamentalist life; however, he did not express any militant views about the United States and he definitely did not say anything suggesting he would ever become involved in something like the 9/11/2001 attacks.

* In May 1998, AL-AMIR told he had been to Mecca and had completed Hajj, an Islamic religious undertaking indicating he had become devoutly religious. AL-AMIR did not specify when he had been to Mecca; however, believes it would have been approximately three months after Ramadan in 1998.

was then given a polygraph exam and no deception was found on his negative answers on the following issues:

Did you have any advance knowledge of the terrorist attacks on 9/11/2001?

Have you had contact of any kind with AL-AMIR since January 2000?

was then transported back to his residence where he voluntarily surrendered his home computer. On 9/19/2001, a TP FBI CART examiner made an image of the contents of the computer's hard drive. TP is in the process of obtaining telephone and e-mail records.
At the conclusion of the interviews of 9/18/2001, denied he has had any phone, e-mail or other contact or any other person to discuss the attacks or his interviews by the FBI since he was first contacted by the FBI on 9/16/2001.

Based upon the above, it appears had no knowledge of AL-AMIR's presence in Florida during the period 2000 through 2001 or advance knowledge of the terrorist attacks of 9/11/2001. It also appears has cooperated with the FBI to date. has agreed to maintain contact with the ORA. voluntarily surrendered both his and his wife's passports. and his wife are permanent resident aliens and are awaiting approval of their applications to become naturalized United States citizens.
