Dear Luke,

Firstly, thank you for following this up for me. The only other numbers I suppose would be my home telephone number 02089952321 and the AG’s office number which is 02072712460 (which I think would not only have been very foolish but unlikely). My home address is 17 Grove Park Terrace, Chiswick, London W43OE. The home number is the most likely place for them to have tracked Lolo. If they hacked her, or husband’s phone which was 07760244379, through mine. They found out everything about her including even sexual proclivities about which I knew absolutely nothing. I thought of them as a very conventional couple, a high street solicitor and his wife, not a couple of swingers. I don’t know how else the Mail would have discovered all the intimate details of her life and the 3 in the bed stories bi stories.

Secondly, I think I was and clearly am a clear target for the Mail as opposed to the Murdoch press and I fear if I have been hacked, which I think is likely, it was probably by them. Murdoch appears to still be taking most of the heat but the truth is I believe they were all ‘at it’ to varying degrees. I don’t know how much of Operation Weeting touches on other media misdeeds.

I’m in you hands.

Best wishes ever

Patricia

Firstly, please do NOT feel bad. You are and will always be wonderful. I love you very much and cant bear the thought that you have been made to feel unnecessarily guilty.

I'm in a happier position. I'm not dictated to be Ed Milliband (who would not even try to do that to me). I'm no longer in the Shadow Cabinet and only visited the Front Bench to do Dy. I determined the policy on the amendments and it was my decision alone to pursue it a third time. It was just about victims. I wanted to do and party said ok we'll stand with you.

Dearest Steve

I don't know how to say this but our conversations about important things in life was almost a prophetic one.

I was admitted to hospital by ambulance (John Radcliffe Oxford) on Saturday with chronic stomach pains and vomiting, diagnosed with gallstones on Sunday, which ruptured as I lay on operating table at 4pm on Monday, they operated with difficulty for over 4 hours to save my life and they succeeded. Have literally just been discharged home. Slept. Hadn't slept since Wednesday last and intend to sleep by God's grace all day tomorrow. His mercy is beyond words.

Thought I should tell you. Scary how fragile life is. Feeling better by the day and although I can't drive for 2 weeks or fly for 4 I should make a complete recovery. So hold fast to Jill and the kids mate and enjoy every second. Life really is great.

With relief and much love to you and all my dear friends P xx

Best wishes ever

I don't know if you remember but when we met at G3 earlier this year we spoke briefly about the attached report. Could I ask you to treat it very discreetly and please do not pass it onto anyone by email. It is worth stressing that this is what is on public record, our own network of contacts in-country have told us a number of concerning reports over the subject's behaviour. Of course that said, to many in India he is a much loved figure,
for all of the controversy.

Best wishes
