MEMORANDUM TO: Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH: Deputy Director/Intelligence

SUBJECT: Suggested Candidates for Director,
National Security Agency

1. The issuance of the Presidential Directive establishing the National Security Agency raises an immediate problem of selecting a Director for the Agency. The Secretary of Defense, with the advice of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff has the responsibility for appointing the Director.
2. In order that you may have readily at hand some suggestions on this matter should the occasion arise, I have had prepared a listing of various senior officers of the Army, Navy, and Air Force.
3. Attached is that list with brief biographical notes and a complete list of three and four star officers of the Armed Services.
