

COUNTER INTELLIGENCE CORPS
MILAN DETACHMENT, ZONE 3
APO 512, United States Army

12 August 1946

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION.

SUBJECT: French Intelligence Agents

From a reliable source it was learned that Alessandro POLACCI, French, born in Bastia, Corsica, former agent of the Surete Militaire, recently stopped in Milan and stayed at the Albergo Rosa. He is generally suspected of being an active agent of the French Intelligence Service. According to our informer, he is trying to set up an undercover espionage network. Another ex-Officer of the Surete Militaire arrived in Milan on 31 July 1946. Name and particulars are unknown. He stays at the Albergo Rosa and is generally suspected of being a French Intelligence agent.
