APO 312, U.S. ARMY

Ref.No. 484-1.

30 November 1946.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION.-

SUBJECT: Communist-Jewish Activity.

Same confidential source supplying original information of Summary of information of 17 Oct 1946, Subject: Leo BERKOVIC, alias Josef LEVINSKI reported to this officer that LEVINSKI's wife Milica who arrived in Lido di Roma 6 weeks ago has again been signaled as a communist agent from Serbia. Living with the LEVINSKIS are Arif SILIC and Maria (Mira) SILIC and their son David. Since the last report the families have changed address and are now living at Corso Regina Maria Pia No.22, Lido di Roma.

Three weeks ago SILIC's cousin, one FADIL CAUSEVIC, arrived from Cairo. Upon his arrival Mira SILIC left for Trieste. She received no visitors while in Trieste, but sent letters and telegrams to undetermined people and places. While in Trieste she was kept under surveillance by a contact of this office. She confided to a friend of our source that Fadil CAUSEVIC is one of the most important men in a Trieste-Rome-Cairo, Jewish-Communist channel. Although CAUSEVIC makes his home in Cairo, he seems to be excellently informed on V.G. and Trieste overt and covert activity.

Dr. BEKLIC and Mrs. DENIC, suspected Yugoslav communist agents are usually visitors of the above groups in Lido di Roma.
