

Department of Defense DIRECTIVE

NUMBER 5210.50

October 27, 2014

USD(I)

SUBJECT: Management of Serious Security Incidents Involving Classified Information

References: See Enclosure 1

1. PURPOSE. This directive:

a. Reissues DoD Directive (DoDD) 5210.50 (Reference (a)) to update established policy and assign responsibilities for the prevention and management of serious security incidents involving information classified in accordance with Executive Order 13526 or the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (referred to in this directive as “serious security incidents”), and congressional notification in accordance with section 2723 of Title 10, United States Code (U.S.C.) (References (b), (c), and (d)).

b. Designates the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence (USD(I)), as the senior security official, to manage and provide oversight of serious security incident procedures, and requires the use of a DoD-wide system for reporting serious security incidents in accordance with DoDD 5143.01 and Secretary of Defense Memorandum (References (e) and (f)).

c. Incorporates and cancels USD(I) Memorandum (Reference (g)).

2. APPLICABILITY. This directive:

a. Applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense (IG DoD), the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this directive as the “DoD Components”).

b. Will be made applicable to DoD contractors through appropriate contract clauses.

3. POLICY. It is DoD policy that:

a. Prevention of serious security incidents is a responsibility shared by all DoD personnel.

b. A DoD-wide system for reporting and managing serious security incidents will be used to compile serious security incident reports, encouraging rapid case resolution.

c. Training on the prevention, identification, and reporting of serious security incidents will be provided to all DoD personnel who are authorized access to classified information.

d. Commanders and supervisors at all levels will ensure that serious security incidents are referred as soon as possible to the appropriate security authorities in accordance with Enclosure 6 of Volume 3 of DoD Manual (DoDM) 5200.01 (Reference (h)) and, when appropriate, to the servicing defense criminal investigative organization or other law enforcement organization in accordance with DoD Instruction (DoDI) 5505.03 (Reference (i)).

(1) For unauthorized disclosures of classified information to the public or the media, submit a Department of Justice (DoJ) media leak questionnaire in accordance with Enclosure 6 of Reference (h) for referral to the DoJ in accordance with section 535(b) of Title 28, U.S.C. (Reference (j)).

(2) Defense Intelligence Components also reporting in accordance with section 1.6(b) of Executive Order 12333 (Reference (k)) will notify the USD(I) through security channels when referring unauthorized disclosures of classified information to DoJ.

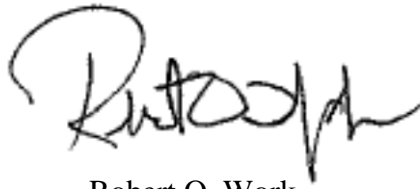

e. Serious security incident investigations and reporting will integrate security, counterintelligence, law enforcement, and other appropriate DoD interests to ensure that the causes of serious security incidents are identified and that all appropriate means are utilized to identify and mitigate damage to national security and avoid similar occurrences.

f. DoD personnel responsible for serious security incidents may be held accountable, as appropriate, in a criminal proceeding, civil judicial action, disciplinary or adverse administrative action, or other administrative action authorized by federal law or regulations.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES. See Enclosure 2.

5. RELEASABILITY. Cleared for public release. This directive is available on the Internet from the DoD Issuances Website at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives>.

6. EFFECTIVE DATE. This directive is effective October 27, 2014.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. USD(I). The USD(I):

- a. Oversees implementation of this directive within DoD.
- b. Authorizes exceptions to this directive. This authority may be delegated to one level below the USD(I).
- c. Establishes policy and provides direction for the identification, reporting, investigation, and referral of serious security incidents.
- d. Monitors, oversees, and ensures the prompt reporting and investigation of serious security incidents throughout DoD and/or within DoD contractor facilities.
- e. Develops and implements a DoD-wide system for reporting and managing serious security incidents.
- f. Assigns investigative and reporting responsibility, in consultation with the affected DoD Component heads, when the responsibility for investigation of a serious security incident is unclear, or is shared by more than one DoD Component.
- g. Reviews findings and recommendations of DoD Component investigations into serious security incidents and follow-on corrective actions to identify root causes, identify and mitigate damage to national security, and avoid similar occurrences. Depending on the results of the initial inquiry and/or investigation, and in consultation with the DoD Component head with original classification authority (OCA) for the information and the General Counsel of the Department of Defense (GC DoD), decides whether investigation beyond that which is already required in Enclosure 6 of Reference (h) is appropriate.
- h. In consultation with the DoD Component head with OCA for the information and the GC DoD, determines whether referral of serious security incidents to the DoJ is appropriate in accordance with References (j) and (k).
- i. In consultation with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs, notifies Congress as required by Reference (d) and the Director, Information Security Oversight Office, National Archives and Records Administration as required by section 5.4(d) of Reference (k).
- j. Coordinates with the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, the IG DoD and the inspectors general of the Defense Intelligence Components (e.g., National Reconnaissance Office, National Security Agency, National Geospatial Intelligence Agency, and Defense Intelligence Agency), law enforcement, counterintelligence, and other appropriate organizations to harmonize procedures within DoD and the intelligence community to ensure that gaps in effective controls and oversight are closed.

2. DoD COMPONENT HEADS. The DoD Component heads:

a. Assign responsibility for directing, administering, and overseeing the implementation of this directive to the senior agency official responsible for the direction, administration, and oversight of the Component's information security program, including classification, declassification, safeguarding, and security education and training programs within their respective Component.

b. Establish a Component point of contact to manage reporting, investigation, referrals, and communication concerning serious security incidents with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence (OUSD(I)).

c. Promptly report serious security incidents, investigative results, and corrective and/or disciplinary action taken to OUSD(I) in accordance with Enclosure 6 of Reference (h) using the DoD-wide system for reporting and managing serious security incidents.

d. Ensure that all serious security incidents are managed in accordance with Enclosure 6 of Reference (h), corrective actions to prevent recurrence are implemented, and those responsible for serious security incidents are held accountable, as appropriate, in a criminal prosecution, civil judicial action, disciplinary or adverse administrative action, or other administrative action authorized by federal law or regulations.

e. Refer matters to OUSD(I) when the responsibility for investigation of a serious security incident is unclear or is shared with another DoD Component.

f. Ensure senior leadership is accountable for implementation of prevention programs, corrective actions, and end-to-end management of serious security incidents.

g. Direct senior leadership involvement in the management of serious security incident cases to assist with the integration of security, counterintelligence, law enforcement, and other appropriate DoD interests.

h. Provide training to enhance the prevention, identification, and reporting of serious security incidents during initial orientation, annual refresher training, and termination briefings as required by Volume 1 of DoDM 5200.01 (Reference (l)).

i. Report serious security incidents involving an intelligence activity or intelligence personnel to the DoD Senior Intelligence Oversight Officer in accordance with Directive-type Memorandum 08-052 (Reference (m)).
