RESPONSIBILITIES

1. USD(I). The USD(I), under the authority of Reference (a), and consistent with Reference (b), in conjunction with the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)), shall:

   a. Provide policy direction and oversight for DoD intelligence human capital programs to the Defense Intelligence Components, and assign DoD intelligence human capital responsibilities.

   b. In coordination with the USD(P&R), establish a DoD-level accreditation program for the Defense Intelligence Components, fully aligned with DoD programs, and as applicable, DNI programs.

   c. Establish a DoD-level certification program for the Defense Intelligence Components workforce, fully aligned with DoD and DNI programs, and consistent with applicable laws.

   d. Conduct continuous evaluation of DoD intelligence human capital programs and provide guidance to the Defense Intelligence Components to ensure alignment to DoD intelligence human capital strategy and direction, and as applicable, to ODNI strategy and direction.

   e. Promulgate guidance in accordance with strategic planning guidance, defense intelligence guidance, and other appropriate OSD policy guidance; identify DoD intelligence human capital requirements during the program and budget build and during development of supplemental requests. Review these requirements and provide additional guidance.

   f. Review the Defense Intelligence Components’ human capital programs within the Military Intelligence Program and provide recommendations to the Defense Intelligence Components.

   g. Develop, in collaboration with the Military Departments, the Military Annex to the National Intelligence Community Strategic Human Capital Plan in the National Intelligence Program Military Personnel Resources Program and consistent with Budget Plans and Procedures.

   h. Evaluate, in the context of the DoD and DNI Human Capital Strategies, recommendations from the Defense Intelligence Components on policies, standards, responsibilities, or related matters on human resources.

   i. Designate the Director, HCMO, to serve as the Chief Human Capital Officer for the Defense Intelligence Components, who shall provide a management staff to support the efforts of the DIHRB, DITEB, and DIFLAAG.

   j. Designate a Co-Chair to the DIHRB at the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (DUSD) level or higher.
k. Designate the Chair to the DITEB at the senior level who shall also serve as the Department-level Chief Learning Officer for the Defense Intelligence Components.

l. Designate the Chair to the DIFLAAG at the senior level.

m. Monitor and assess the effectiveness of DoD intelligence human capital programs, including new requirements and major changes, and recommend, in collaboration with the Heads of the Defense Intelligence Components, adjustments to assignments of DoD intelligence human capital responsibilities.

n. Review and provide guidance and oversight to the Defense Intelligence Components for DNI Human Capital issuances and leverage those appropriate for the Department of Defense.

2. USD(P&R). The USD(P&R) shall designate a Co-Chair to the DIHRB at the DUSD level or higher.

3. HEADS OF DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE COMPONENTS. The Heads of the Defense Intelligence Components shall:

a. Incorporate guidance from the USD(I), the USD(P&R), and as appropriate and directed by the USD(I), the ODNI in the development and execution of DoD intelligence human capital PP&B actions.

b. Implement policies, procedures, programs, and requirements as specified in this Instruction.

c. Support program evaluation requirements of the Department of Defense and, as tasked by the USD(I), ODNI human capital programs.

d. Leverage DoD and, as applicable, ODNI Human Capital programs to achieve economies of scale and capitalize on best practices.

e. Assemble and maintain a current record of all DoD intelligence human capital requirements and programs under their cognizance.

f. Designate a representative at the Defense Intelligence Senior Executive Service (DISES) or equivalent level to serve on the DIHRB.

PROCEDURES

1. DIHRB

   a. The DIHRB shall address Defense Intelligence Components human capital issues and forward recommendations and issues to the USD(I).

   b. The Co-Chairs of the DIHRB:

      (1) Shall facilitate a forum at which DoD intelligence human capital issues and such matters as legislative proposals, policy changes, establishment of standards, recommendation of resource allocations and other human capital related topics may be addressed and recommendations made to the USD(I) and USD(P&R).

      (2) Shall call a meeting of the DIHRB at least bi-monthly or as recommended by the members.

      (3) May extend, as appropriate, DIHRB participation to non-Defense Intelligence Components as associate members to allow full access to DoD intelligence human capital, as appropriate (e.g., ODNI, Office of Management and Budget, and the Office of Personnel Management).

      (4) Shall designate the Executive Secretary who shall prepare an annual report on activities of the DIHRB for submission to the USD(I), USD(P&R), and DIHRB members. The annual report will include performance metrics on the DoD intelligence, counterintelligence, and security workforce to include personnel and professional development programs and initiatives.

   c. Membership of the DIHRB will comprise a DISES, or equivalent, from each of the Defense Intelligence Components, Office of the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, Office of the Director of Administration and Management, and the Defense Security Service.

   d. The DIHRB may charter working groups to address specific issues as required. The Co-Chairs will designate the Chair for any working group established under the auspices of the DIHRB.

      (1) The DCIPS Working Group shall develop and update personnel policy, review and comment on the design of tools to support DCIPS, serve as liaison between OUSD(I) and the Defense Intelligence Components, and provide recommendations to the DIHRB, the USD(I), and the USD(P&R) on personnel business practices matters pertaining to DCIPS implementation.

      (2) Membership on the DCIPS Working Group will comprise one primary and one alternate from each of the Defense Intelligence Components, Washington Headquarters Services, Office of the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, and others as determined by the Chair, DCIPS Working Group.

2. DITEB

a. The DITEB, comprised of the President of the National Defense Intelligence College (Reference (d)), the Chairs of the Training Councils listed in References (e) through (h) and others as determined by the Chair, shall address DoD intelligence education and training issues of the Defense Intelligence Components.

b. The Chair of the DITEB shall:

   (1) Provide a forum at which DoD intelligence professional development issues and matters such as policy changes, establishment of standards, allocation of responsibilities, and other related topics may be addressed and recommendations made to the USD(I) via the DIHRB.

   (2) Call a meeting of the DITEB at least bi-monthly or as determined by the members.

   (3) Extend DITEB participation to non-Defense Intelligence Components as associate members to allow full access to DoD intelligence education and training, as appropriate (e.g., National Intelligence University, American Council on Education, and the Council on Occupational Education).

3. DIFLAAG

a. The DIFLAAG, comprised of representatives of the Defense Intelligence Components and others as determined by the Chair, shall address the Defense Intelligence foreign language, cultural, and regional issues of the Defense Intelligence Components, consistent with Reference (k).

b. The Chair of the DIFLAAG shall:

   (1) Provide a forum at which Defense Intelligence foreign language, cultural, and regional requirements, policy, and programs and other related topics may be addressed and recommendations made to the USD(I), the DoD SLA, and the Defense Language Steering Committee.

   (2) Call a meeting of the DIFLAAG at least bi-monthly or as determined by the members.

   (3) Extend DIFLAAG participation to non-Defense Intelligence Components as associate members to allow appropriate access to DoD intelligence foreign language, cultural, and regional requirements, policy, and programs, as appropriate (e.g., Foreign Language Executive Committee and Defense Language Steering Committee).
