1. Purpose. To establish and provide the background, eligibility, policies, application and selection procedures, and responsibilities for the Navy Cyber Federal Executive Fellowship (CFEF) Program, per references (a) and (b). This revision extends eligibility to active duty officers with 1800, 1810, and 1830 designators and accounts for the 1 October 2010 Information Dominance Corps (IDC) designator revision directed in reference (c).

2. Cancellation. OPNAVINST 1500.79.

3. CFEF Program
   a. Background

      (1) The CFEF Program was established in 2009 to give mid-level officers an opportunity to increase their understanding of cyber policy development and decision making at the highest levels of government. This program integrates concerns of national security, governance, and cyber warfare by allowing select officers the opportunity to participate as fellows at a selected research organization. Armed with an increased knowledge of policy development and high-level decision making, officers completing the CFEF Program will be subsequently available to fill cyber-related billets in strategy, planning, and operations to leverage their expertise.
(2) Under reference (b), Secretary of the Navy (SECNAV) delegated to the Commandant of the Marine Corps and the Chief of Naval Operations the authority to establish non-legislative fellowship programs and to approve fellowships under those programs.

b. Eligibility. All active duty O4-O5 IDC officers (1800, 1810, 1820, and 1830 designators).

c. Thesis Requirement. Officers participating in the CFEF Program will be uniquely situated to benefit from the expertise resident at their institutions. Understanding and incorporating this “outside perspective” is critically important to the Navy as it continues to adapt and refine itself to meet the strategic challenges of today and tomorrow. Each CFEF fellow will be required to research and write a thesis paper related to cyber-strategy, policy, and decision making. The Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Information Dominance (CNO (N2/N6)) via Director, Total Force Management Division (OPNAV N2/N6C1) will provide the specific guidelines and criteria for the thesis at the outset of the academic year. The emphasis will be on generating a product which will contribute to the development of Navy cyber operations.

d. Institutions. The participating institutions will meet eligibility criteria from reference (a) and be announced in the annual Navy-specific administrative message (NAVADMIN) via official information exchange (such as command e-mail or other communication transport mechanisms) discussed in paragraph 5. These institutions will be selected based on their ability to meet the Navy’s present needs, anticipated requirements or future capabilities, and their potential to contribute to the effectiveness of the Navy’s cyber strategy, policy, and decision making.

4. Policy

a. Assignments. Assignments to the CFEF Program may not exceed 1 year and will usually commence in August.

b. Service Obligation. Officers participating in this program may not resign or retire while assigned to a fellowship, and shall agree in writing to remain on active duty upon completion or termination of the fellowship for a period of three times the duration of the fellowship. This obligation is governed by statute and may not be waived. It can be served concurrently with any other service obligation.

c. Utilization. Officers completing this program must serve at least one utilization tour in an Office of the Chief of Naval Operations (OPNAV) staff billet as soon as possible, but not later than the second subsequent shore tour. Exceptions to this rule must be approved by Assistant Commander, Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM) for Career Management (PERS-4) and CNO (N2/N6). This policy will not be waived for personal preference.

d. Subspecialty. Officers completing this program may be eligible for the 6000S subspecialty code denoting professional experience related to system capabilities and limitations and system and platform requirements based on command and control, administrative, logistical, and or operational requirements. This subspecialty code is not automatically granted. The procedures for applying for a subspecialty code are available at: https://navprodev.bupers.navy.mil/nss/information/.

e. Fitness Reports (FITREPs). Per reference (d), officers participating in this program will receive not-observed FITREPs for continuity purposes. OPNAV (N2/N6C1) will be the reporting senior on all FITREPs. At the end of the Federal Executive Fellowship academic year, each fellow will be responsible for obtaining a letter from his or her institution, normally signed by the program director or an immediate supervisor, which documents his or her performance and involvement throughout the course of the year. This letter will be submitted as an attachment to the final detaching FITREP.

f. Program Reviews. CNO (N2/N6) will conduct a thorough program review annually. This program review will be collaborative in nature and involve all stakeholders. CNO (N2/N6) will incorporate improvements as appropriate into the subsequent NAVADMIN. The program review addresses, but is not limited to:

(1) Institution additions or deletions;
(2) Modification of program requirements, including designator expansion;

(3) Program funding issues; and

(4) Compliance with references (a) and (e).

5. Application and Selection

a. Application. Each year in June or July, CNO (N2/N6) is responsible for releasing a NAVADMIN which solicits applications for the CFEF Program. This timing allows interested officers adequate time to submit applications for the October or November selection board. Officers interested in applying to this program should follow the examples contained in enclosures (1) and (2). Completed applications should be mailed to the NAVPERSCOM address below. Additionally, e-mail a copy of the application package to the CNO (N2/N6) point of contact listed in the annual NAVADMIN.

b. Selection. Commander, Navy Personnel Command (COMNAVPERSCOM) (PERS-00) will convene the CFEF Program Selection Board annually in October or November. Selection will be based on career performance, academic qualifications, promotion potential, overall fleet requirements, needs of the Navy, and availability of billets. Officers selected for this program will be required to accept or decline within 14 days of the release of the selection board results. Any time thereafter, selectee-initiated requests to decline an assignment will be handled on a case-by-case basis, but normally will not be approved unless extenuating circumstances exist. Openings will be filled by alternates per their order of selection by the board and individual program requirements. Alternates will also have 14 days to accept or decline. Similarly, alternate selectee-initiated requests to decline an assignment will be handled on a case-by-case basis, but normally will not be approved unless extenuating circumstances exist.

      (6) Annually, in September or October, per all stakeholders, conduct a review of the previous academic year's CFEF. At a minimum, this review will evaluate compliance with references (a) and (e), cost of execution, utilization, and any fiscal surpluses and or constraints that might affect future execution of the program to help inform and guide future decisions about the program. No later than 31 October of each year, report the effectiveness of the program in meeting established goals and compliance with references (a) and (e) to the Director, Training and Education Division (OPNAV (N15)).
