Michael A. Sheehan is the CEO and founding partner of Lexington Security Group. Sheehan has had a thirty-year career of public service; much of it involved in counter terrorism, unconventional warfare, peacekeeping and law enforcement. He has served with distinction as a U.S. Army Special Forces officer, a White House aide for two Presidents, as a senior diplomat at the State Department and the United Nations, and finally as the head of counter terrorism for the New York City Police Department (NYPD).
SPECIALIZED SERVICES

- SWAT
- Communications
- Operations Centers
- Intelligence
- Counterterrorism
- Community Policing
- Counterinsurgency

LAW ENFORCEMENT & NATIONAL DEFENSE

Police, internal security, and military organizations around the world are confronted with a range of challenging security threats -- from complex terrorist attacks and inner-city crimes to organized insurgencies and natural disasters. At Lexington we work with clients to prepare for, prevent against, and respond to these challenges through...
SPECIALIZED PLANNING SERVICES

- Threat and Vulnerability Assessments
- Infrastructure Protection
- Interagency Coordination
- Emergency Response
- Communications
- Operations Centers
- Public-Private Partnerships

NATIONAL SECURITY PLANNING

Oceans and borders no longer protect nations as national security threats have grown more complex and technologically sophisticated. More than ever countries need a comprehensive strategy to combat these threats, which draws on all available public and private means at their disposal. Lexington advisors have participated in the design, development and execution of such plans for the